

JURY RETURNED VERDICT

FOR THE DEFENDANT Cincinnati, O., June 9.—The jury in the trial of Lee Magee, Cincinnati base-ball player, in his suit against the Chicago National league baseball club for $5,500, returned a verdict for the defend-ant in the United States district court here late today. The jury deliberated about an hour before it reached a de-cision. Robert Alcorn, attorney for Ma-gee, announced after the verdict had been ges, announced after the verdict had been rendered that the case would be appealed. Magee, who formerly played with the Cincinnati, Brooklyn, Chicago Nationals and other major league clubs, charged that he was released by the Chicago Nationals without just cause last February, thereby being deprived of earning a living as a professional baseball player.

Magee admitted on the witness stand that he had made a bet on the first same

YALE-HARVARD CREW TO ROW UPSTREAM

Gales Ferry, Conn., June 9.—Agreement on the program for the Yale-Harvard regatta June 25 was reached this afternoon at a conference here between the Yale and Harvard rowing officials. The varsity race over the four mile course is scheduled to be rowed upstream at 5 p. m., standard time (8 p. m., daylight saving time). In case the start is delayed past 5.30 p. m., the race will be rowed downstream after 7 p. m., standard time (8 p. m., daylight saving time).

The freshman eights will race at 10 a. m., standard time, rowing downstream from the head of the course to the navy yard. The junior varsity crews are sched.

On Saturday the Baittic Rivals go to willingatic to play the Cresents in a Coach Nickalls called off a four mile time trial planned for the varsity crew late today. At 6 o'clock the wind shifted and the river became rough, so the first and second varsity eights had short race instead of a time test. They rowed upstream about a mile, the first boat finishing ahead by a quarter length. The oarsmen then paddled downstream three miles and were given practice in starts. miles and were given practice in starts.

The freshman and combination crews did about four miles of easy rowing in the afternoon.
